

COURSE BROCHURE

Internal Audit and Control for Government

Professional Training Course

Skillslab Training Provider

Skills for Tomorrow's World

Course Description

Course Overview

Internal Audit and Control for Government is a comprehensive and structured program designed to provide new and emerging managers with a clear understanding of internal audit functions and control frameworks within government and public sector organizations. The course explains how internal audit and control systems support accountability transparency risk management and effective use of public resources. It positions internal audit not as a fault-finding activity but as a strategic assurance and improvement mechanism that supports leadership and governance.

For first-time managers and supervisors internal controls and audit processes often appear complex or distant from daily operations. This course bridges that gap by linking audit and control concepts directly to managerial responsibilities decision-making authority and team supervision. As part of leadership training for new managers the program delivers strong workplace value by strengthening management skills training improving control awareness and enabling managers to contribute confidently to sound governance and institutional performance.

Key Outcomes

- By the end of this program participants will be able to explain the purpose and scope of internal audit in government organizations
- By the end of this program participants will be able to distinguish between internal audit internal control and external oversight functions
- By the end of this program participants will be able to understand managerial roles and responsibilities within control frameworks
- By the end of this program participants will be able to identify common control weaknesses affecting public sector operations
- By the end of this program participants will be able to apply control awareness to daily managerial decisions
- By the end of this program participants will be able to support audit planning and information requests appropriately

- By the end of this program participants will be able to contribute to risk reduction and performance improvement
- By the end of this program participants will be able to demonstrate leadership fundamentals aligned with internal control responsibilities

Who Should Attend

- First-time managers in government and public sector entities
- Newly appointed supervisors and section heads
- Team leaders and unit coordinators
- High-potential employees preparing for leadership roles
- Middle management staff with operational oversight responsibilities
- Employees transitioning from technical or specialist roles to management
- Managers working in finance procurement human resources operations or administration

Prerequisites: No prerequisites. Basic understanding of organizational processes is sufficient.

Course Outline by days

Day 1 Internal Audit and Control in Government Context

- Purpose and objectives of internal audit in the public sector
- Role of internal control in supporting governance and accountability
- Relationship between audit control and management responsibility
- Lines of assurance and oversight structures
- Importance of audit awareness for new managers

Day 2 Internal Control Frameworks and Managerial Accountability

- Components of effective internal control systems
- Control environment policies and ethical expectations
- Managerial accountability for control implementation
- Delegation supervision and control responsibility
- Common control challenges faced by first-time managers

Day 3 Audit Planning Processes and Manager Interaction

- Leadership development for team leaders through audit cooperation

Day 4 Audit Findings Recommendations and Corrective Actions

- Understanding audit observations and root causes
- Classification of findings and risk implications
- Developing and implementing corrective action plans
- Monitoring follow-up and management responses
- Maintaining transparency and constructive engagement

Day 5 Embedding Control Awareness into Daily Management

- Integrating controls into daily operational activities
- Strengthening team understanding of control responsibilities
- Preventing control failures and irregularities
- Supporting continuous improvement and assurance
- Review recap and managerial readiness discussion

Methodology

The course is delivered using a primarily theoretical and knowledge-based approach aligned with a leadership fundamentals course for new managers. Content is structured around internal audit principles control frameworks and public sector governance practices. Instructor-led explanations guided discussions and simplified case illustrations enable participants to understand audit and control concepts without reliance on heavy practical workshops.

Interaction combines individual reflection with light group discussions to reinforce understanding and encourage shared learning. Training materials include concise summary sheets a participant workbook simplified templates and a practical toolkit that managers can reference after the course. Minimal optional pre-reading or follow-up support may be provided upon request only to enhance learning continuity.

Assessment & ROI

In-session assessment is conducted through short quizzes guided question sessions recap checks and facilitated discussions to confirm understanding of key internal audit and control concepts. These assessments focus on reinforcing learning outcomes and clarifying managerial responsibilities rather than formal evaluation.

delivery. Optional follow up support or review sessions can be arranged upon request.

Instructor Profile

Instructor assignment depends on the delivery date and city. We work with a global pool of trainers. Please contact us to confirm the most suitable available instructor for this course based on schedule and location.

Conclusion

Internal Audit and Control for Government provides a strong foundation for first-time manager training by linking audit awareness and control responsibility with effective leadership and accountability. As a new manager leadership course it strengthens decision-making discipline enhances risk awareness and supports sustainable institutional performance. The program can be delivered onsite online or in a blended format with flexible duration options and participants receive a certificate of completion. Organizations are encouraged to contact us to tailor the delivery to their management development and governance objectives.

Contact Us

For registration inquiries, upcoming dates, or group pricing, please contact us:

Website

www.skillslab-training.com

Email

info@skillslab-training.com

WhatsApp

+966 559 653 447

Generated by Skillslab Training

info@skillslab-training.com | WhatsApp: +966 559 653 447

www.skillslab-training.com