Methodology

This new manager leadership course is delivered using a primarily theoretical and concept-driven methodology. The focus is on structured explanations, leadership frameworks, and best-practice models relevant to succession planning and leadership development. Simplified case examples are used to illustrate concepts without extensive workshop-based activities.

Interaction is maintained through guided discussions, short reflection questions, and knowledge checks suitable for individual and group engagement. Training materials include summary sheets, a participant workbook, conceptual templates, and a practical leadership toolkit that can be easily reviewed or applied using standard office software. Optional pre-reading or follow-up materials may be provided upon request.

Assessment & ROI

Assessment during the program is conducted through in-session methods such as short quizzes, guided Q&A, recap discussions, and concept checks led by the instructor. These methods ensure understanding of leadership fundamentals, management skills training concepts, and succession planning principles.

Measurement of return on investment may also be conducted internally by the client organization using KPIs, manager evaluations, performance reviews, or leadership readiness indicators. Internal measurement is
